AN ANSWER

Editor of Tucumcari News, please publish the following statement in defense of the family that was wrote up in the News last week criticising them for being charitably inclined, when they were amply provided. Will say I was in the home a number of times and did what I could in the time of distress, etc; also can say that I hardly think any one can accuse the family of trying to deceive or leaving the impression that they were not financially able to care for their sick ones. They mentioned to the neighbors that went in to see and help them that they had property in Okla. also the amt. of income. Therefore the neighbors and friends did not labor or contribute under a false impression, what ever. I would rather think what was donated or contributed to them was a free will offering of kindness, and not as alms or as a charitable deed. The food or lunch rather donated by the ladies was given as they felt she had all her hands could possibly do without preparing lunches as there were so many other duties for her attention in this time of trouble.

Some people think if you are provided for financially you don't need any thing else. My friends there are in sickness and in death the need of kind words love and sympathy that no man's money may purchase. No one could have visited that home during the sickness and the hour of death without having felt within their heart any thing but sadness and sympathy for this grief stricken family, while the Baptist ladies took a part in caring for them and did what they could, there were a number of ladies of other denominations that greatly assisted, and others that were not members of any church.

Are we as christian people going to turn a deaf ear to the distress cry, because they are strangers within our gates seeking health for their loved ones?

NO ALUM in DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

We know not the anguish of heart this family must have felt of being amongst strangers far from their native town and home far from relatives and personal friends in this hour of death. They tried to get away from our town before this sorrow over took them but on account of the sickness of the boy were not able to leave, it was their intention to go home and be with their loved ones in this hour of sickness and distress, but the death angel arrived "not unexpected" but alas before their hopes were fulfilled; therefore, this family is to be pitied rather than censured.

PAWNBROKER'S SANITARY CLOTHING — WHAT IS IT?

In the large cities pawnbrokers advance small sums of money on clothing and other articles to be redeemed later by the owners. In about nine cases out of ten the owner fails to redeem them. In such cases the pawnbroker keeps them a limited time and then has them cleaned and pressed and made perfectly sanitary, the law requiring him to do so, and places them on the market at a small fraction of their value. I have a shipment of this clothing in and will be pleased to have you call and examine them—to examine means to buy.

Resentment is more easily aroused and made militant than gratitude. The Wilson Administration has rendered the country a mightier service than any Administration it has had in fifty years. Its successes outnumbered and outweighs infinitely its failures. Its blunders are but the punctuation marks in the splendid record of its genuine achievements. But one blunder is more dynamic than twenty achievements. Dissent is more mobile and articulate than assent. The satisfied citizen indulges

The dissatisfied citizen sets the alarm against the chance that he will oversleep the hours of voting. For signal illustration of this notion contemplate the results in New Jersey. Until Woodrow Wilson came to be its voice and exponent, there was as much honor in being rejected by the electorate of Pennsylvania. Woodrow Wilson, as Governor made politically reputable a state that had become politically disreputable, and as President he has conferred on it a prestige it could never have won for it. But now, New Jersey, as if irked by the requirements for political decency, turns against him, and, as if to make the slap more resounding, the congressional district in which he lives sends to congress one sworn to be politically hostile to him. The favor of princess is not much more whimsical and fickle than that of democracies.—Dallas News.

Serial No. 02012

Contest No. 541

Notice of Contest

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office, Tucumcari, N. M., Nov. 6, 1914.

To the heirs of Henry H. Frazier, deceased, of McLean, Texas, Contestant:

You are hereby notified that Herman E. DeOliveria, who gives Puerto, New Mexico, as his post-office address, did on Nov. 6, 1914, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry No. 22365, Serial No. 02012, made January 10, 1908, for N. 1-2 S. W. 1-4 and S. 1-2 N. W. 1-4, Section 31, Township 3 N., Range 13 E., N. M. P. Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges:

That the said entryman departed this life on or about the 1st day of October, 1910, that the heirs are all unknown except one nephew, A. W. Haynes, and one niece, Mrs. A. W. Haynes, whose last known address was McLean, Texas, that diligent inquiry has been made of the neighbors living in the immediate vicinity of the said entry, and no one knows of the heirs or their addresses, except as stated above, that the said entryman was a widower, and that his wife died two years after their marriage, which was many years ago, and there were no children born to this union.

That on or about the 1st day of May, 1908, the said entryman willed the said entry in writing to a Mr. E. E. Gragson, secured a leave of absence for six months, and left for McLean, Texas. Later, on the expiration of the first leave, he secured a second leave for six months more without returning to the said entry, and without any attempt as to the requirements of residence or cultivation, that on or about the 15th day of July, 1910, the said E. E.

Gragson, returned the aforesaid will to Henry H. Frazier, the aforesaid entryman, who shortly thereafter willed the said entry to his nephew A. W. Haynes.

That the said entryman, Henry H. Frazier, had wholly abandoned the said entry for more than twelve last past and prior to his death which occurred on or about October 1st, 1910, and that the heirs of the said entryman have wholly abandoned the said land since the entryman's death and no residence has been established, nor no improvements or cultivation has been made. The land has been wholly abandoned since May 1st, 1908, more than twelve months last past and prior to the entryman's death, that none of the heirs have made any attempt at settlement or cultivation since the death of the entryman, that said abandonment still exists and has not been cured, and the land has not been earned to pass the same to patent.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be canceled without further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the postoffice to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.
